THE Po Leung Kuk Ordinance, over which there has been a good deal of unnecessary wrangling and waste Di time, has at last been passed by the Legislative Council. A few alterations of comparatively slight importance have been made. Apart from these, the Ordinance stands as it was originally submitted to the Council. These alterations, be it noted, are the result of certain suggestions made by those members Marquis de la Hababa, the ex-Minister of of the Special Commission appointed to State (Marquis de la Vega de Armijo) and consider certain grave charges brought with other important politicians. Nothing against the institution. On investigation these charges broke down, and the definite has resulted, but it is easured that alterations which the Secretary of State Sr. Sagasta will have the new Ministry has now made in the Ordinance are not formed by to-morrow. made on the recommendation of what might have been called the Anti-Po Leung Kuk party, but actually give effect to the views of those members of the Special Commission who have from the first been in favour of the Po Leung Kuk Ordinance. The matter of passing an Incorporation Ordinance at all was name, Sr. Amos Salvador, Justice, Sr. one which met with strong opposition Candepon; Colonies, Br. Becorre : War, from a section of the Unofficial Meme Br. Lopez Domingues; Marine, Sr. Pasbers, led by the redoubtable Member out. for the Chamber of Commerce. But the bad opinion which these gentlemen had formed of the Society itself and of the purpose for which the incorporation bill was introduced was replaced by an opinion of quite a different nature when they had obtained mehr licht. The Po Leung Kuk, after being denounced the good work it had done the past and extelled for the potentialities it possessed for doing as good if not better work in the future. to the good intentions and the valuable services of the Po Leang Knk. The opposition to the incorporation of the Society has always seemed to us to be utterly unreasonable, it must have been with a sense of satisfaction and relief that the community generally learned that the opposing Unbflicia Members ultimately became convinced of their unreasonableness. Mr Whitehead, the most persistent and uncompromising opposer of the Ordinance, while frankly announcing his conversion to a right view of the main object of the bill, stuck with characteristic pertinacity to some objections affecting certain of its details. Concerning those objections Mr Whitehead sent a ponderous memorial to the Secretary of State for the Colonies. Napoleon remarked of the British soldier that he never knew when he was defeated; and among those to whom this remark is applicable the Member for the Chamber of Commerce is fairly entitled to be included. The result of the appeal to the Secretary of State has been, as we have already said, a few comparatively unimportant alterations in the text of the Ordinance in compliance with suggestions made by what we may call the Pro-Po Leung Kuk party in the Commission alterations which, in all probability, would have been made without any appeal to the Colonial Office. The chief objection to the Ordinance. as Mr Whitehead and Mr Chater agreed, was that it placed the Registrer General in the position of President of the governing body of the Po Leung Ruk. And with regard to this point the Secretary of State in his despatch laid before the Legislative Council at last meeting simply says :- It seems hardly necessary, as proposed by Mr Whitehead and Mr Chater, that with the view of the Registrar General controlling the proceedings of the Seciety from the outside he should be removed from the position of President of the Roard in which he is placed by the Ordinance. The opposition has thus come to a somewhat lame and impotent conclusion, but although it has resulted only in a considerable loss of time and a great deal of unnecessary trouble, it has had the effect, we hope, of removing any doubt that may have existed with regard to the motives and methods of the Po Leung Kuk. The complacent manner in which Mr Whitehead takes credit for having brought about the amendments in the bill by his own efforts is admirable in one sense, and as he is a tower of strength in the Council, we shall not find fault with him for doing this. Norwithstanding rumours to the contrary -exaggerated rumours of murders and murderous assaults -the Sx Yap and Tung Kan desperadoes, who have been carrying on a sort of guerilla warfare in the Taipingshan District, seem to have buried the hatchet for the time being at least. The coolies have returned to work, and although the police continue to patrol what may be regarded as the disaffected district they do not anticipate any further trouble. An attempt is being made to discover the man who perpetrated the deliberate murder of a coolie in Hillier Street. It is not expected that the search for this murderer will be successescape to Kwangtung before the police had obtained sufficient information to get upon his trail. At the present moment there are upwards of thirty men in custody on the charge of carrying unlawful weapons, mostly revolvers, and these men will come before the Police Magistrates on Monday morning.

During the debate on the Address in the ment over the amendment proposed by Mr Labouchere to deprive the House of Lords of their power to reject Bills. The amendment was carried by one hundred and forty-seven against one hundred and forty-five votes, despite the opposition of Sir William Vernon-Harcourt, on the ground that serious issues were involved. The majority was composed of Redicals and both Irish sections; the division having been at an earlier hour than was expected, many members of the Opposition were engaged dining. The Unionist Press holds that the passing of the amendment is s serious blow to the Government. The Times considers it means the breaking of the alliance whereby the Government retains office and is of opinion that it renders an carly dissolution inevitable. The Daily News thinks the result indicates public opinion, but is nowise hurtini ... Ch the motion of Sir William Vernon-Harcourt the House rejected the Address with Ma Labouchere's amendment and adopted a substitute merely thanking Her Majesty for her gracious speech.
